

German ambassador visits Harbour Facilities, welcomed by Vice Prime Minister

WRITTEN BY STAFF REPORTER 13 FEBRUARY 2012 PUBLISHED IN THE FRONTS

Photo

courtesy of M.G.C. Associates

PHILIPSBURG - The German Ambassador to The Hague Dr. Heinz-Peter Behr visited Dr. A.C. Wathey Cruise and Cargo Facilities during his visit to St. Maarten last week.

During his visit to the Harbour Facilities he was accompanied by the Deputy Prime Minister of St. Maarten the Honorable Theo Heyliger and Harbour Group of Companies CEO Mark Mingo.

During the quality time spent with the German Ambassador the matter of business cooperation with Germany was discussed.

At the completion of his visit the Ambassador was presented with a plaque showing the German cruise ship, Mein Schiff 2, which calls here every two weeks.

It is also one of the ships that stay the longest in port, leaving close to midnight.

The ambassador was also accompanied by Germany Honorary Consul for Curaçao and St. Maarten Karel Frielink.

Also a part of the tour was Minister Plenipotentiary in The Hague Mathias Voges and Foreign Affairs Director Guy van der Meulen.

In Photo; Foreign Affairs Director Guy van der Meulen, Deputy Prime Minister Theo Heyliger, Germany Honorary Consul for Curaçao and St. Maarten Karel Frielink, German Ambassador to The Hague Dr. Heinz-Peter Behr and Harbour Group of Companies CEO Mark Mingo

<http://www.sxmislandtime.com/component/k2/item/17409-german-ambassador-visits-harbour-group-welcomed-by-vice-prime-minister.html>